All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful; all things are lawful for me, but not all things edify. 1 Corinthians 10:23

Part of the Book of First Corinthians is Paul answering questions the church had written to him about. You also might have questions that the Bible may seem to be silent on. For example, is a follower of Jesus free (Christian liberty) to eat out on Sunday, listen to worldly music, watch worldly tv shows/movies, get a tattoo, use birth control, etc?

Paul, led by the Holy Spirit, provides some guiding principles to help us answer these. These principles along with our God given conscience and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit provide firm guidance for a follower of Jesus.

1. Does this help me? (Is it good for me?)
1 Corinthians 10:23
2. Does this edify (build up) me or others?
1 Corinthians 10:23
3. Can this cause others to stumble?
1 Corinthians 8:9 - 13
4. Can this master me? (be addictive/control)
1 Corinthians 6:12
5. Does this bring honor and glory to God?
1 Corinthians 10:31

We will be partnering with local school resource officers to provide school supplies for 200 Bullitt County students for the upcoming school year. We have been asked to provide 200 boxes of 24 count Crayons and 200 pairs of blunt tipped children's scissors. There is also an opportunity to help grill and serve hot dogs at this giveaway event at the pavilion in Mt Washington on August 1st. See Dave or Kathy Bell if you would like to help at the event or donate supplies.

RVBC T-shirt order forms are at the Welcome Center.

The two previous designs are available plus a new "I Love My Church Family" design is available. We will receive orders through July 20th. Cost per shirt is $10 and please be specific on the color you order (for example: gray - specify light gray, heather gray, etc)
